Tour Itinerary

Day 1 : Arrive Guwahati

Arrival transfer from airport to hotel in Guwahati, en route visit Kamakhya Temple & Assam State Museum (Private Vehicle).

Welcome to your 'Green triangle of northeast' Tour! On arrival at the airport in Guwahati, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. En route visit Kamakhya Temple and Assam State Museum.

Kamakhya temple is a famous pilgrimage situated at Guwahati, Assam. The temple is located on the Nilachal hill in Guwahati about 8 kms from the railway station. The Kamakhya temple is dedicated to the tantric goddesses. Apart from the deity Kamakhya Devi, the compound of the temple houses 10 other avatars of Kali namely Dhumavati, Matangi, Bagola, Tara, Kamala, Bhairavi, Chinnamasta, Bhuvaneshwari and Tripuara Sundari.

The Assam State Museum is located in the southern end of Dighali Pukhuri tank which is in the heart of Guwahati, Assam. The Museum was established by the Kamarupa Anusandhan Samiti in 1940. On arrival check-in to your hotel. The rest of the day is at leisure for Independent activities.

Day 2 : On To Kaziranga National Park (200 kms / approx. 5 hours drive)

After breakfast, drive to Kaziranga National Park in the heart of Assam. Kaziranga National Park was declared a Tiger Reserve in 2006 since it hosts the highest density of tigers amongst all protected areas in the world. On arrival, check-in to your hotel.

The rest of the day is at leisure for Independent activities.

Day 3 : Kaziranga National Park

In the morning enjoy Elephant safari (Subject to operational at own cost).

Later afternoon, embark on a Jeep safari at Kaziranga National Park (Subject to operational at own cost) . one of the oldest national parks in India.

It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site housing two-third of the world one-horned rhinoceros population. Birdlife International, a conservation organisation has identified Kaziranga National Park as an Important Bird Area owing to its wide variety of bird life.

^ The rest of the day is at leisure.
